This circular serves to replace Circular 5 issued on 18 June 2020. The following arrangements applicable to the City Planning & Development (CP&D) Division will be effective from 8 July 2020, subject to change as may be required.

1. Access to offices:

- CP&D offices and information counters (excluding the Centurion Office) are ready for occupation by staff from 8 July 2020 on a rotation basis.

- All visitors will be required to wear a face mask and apply hand sanitiser.

2. Availability of staff:

- CP&D staff are able to access the office (excluding the Centurion Office) for normal duties on a rotation basis, with specific arrangements made for staff who are over 60, or have comorbidities or are pregnant.
- CP&D staff as indicated in Table A are available during normal office hours (excluding the Centurion Office) by cell phone, email, office phones or on appointment.
- Office email, office phone contact and appointments are limited given that Directors need to rotate staff at the office in the interest of social distancing.
- Staff who are able to work from home may be allowed to do so by the responsible Director.

3. Submission of new land development applications

- From 8 July 2020 new land development applications may be submitted by email to Newlanduseapplications@tshwane.gov.za.

"Please note that you will not receive a reply from this "Inbox" to confirm receipt of an application. The application will be allocated to the Deputy Director, Planning Professional and Planning Officer and all correspondence enquiries or other matters must be sent directly to the respective official. Please follow the naming protocols in the subject line being: Property Description or Township Name and Extension. Applications must be scanned as PDF documents based on the provision of the Tshwane LUM Bylaw F/10. We reserve the right to delete your application from the "Inbox" if you do not comply with the directives of the Municipality as per our Circulars and as per this reply. If you have not complied please send a notice of withdrawal from the "Inbox" and do a re-submission. Clearly mark the withdrawal and re-submission."

The calculation of days will thus be extended by 111 days as indicated above for purposes of compliance and submission of documents to this division. New applications and applications submitted but not advertised, may be advertised from 15 July 2020.

A directive wrt electronic advertising procedures will be communicated before 15 July 2020.
