

Change of Professional Designation

In terms of Section 13(6) of the Planning Profession Act, 2002, the Council may determine abbreviations or acronyms for the categories of registration.

The Council on its meeting of 12 November 2010 resolved as follows:

- That the title/designation for Professional Planners be Pr. Pln with the registration number
- That the title/designation for Technical Planners be Tch. Pln with the registration number.

All Existing registered person should take note of the new designation and that the new designation comes into operation on 1st January 2011. Registered persons could start using the new designation immediately if they so wish.
